EXPERIENCE

Mr. Wenick joined the firm's New York City office as Of Counsel in 2018. Previously, as a partner at several New York based law firms, he handled over two hundred cases for hospitals and social service agencies throughout the NYC area. In his career, Frank has argued over one hundred appeals before the New York State Court of Appeals, the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, and the lower New York State Appellate Courts. He was assigned by the Attorney General's Office to be Trial Counsel for the State's Insurance Department in Liquidation, Rehabilitation, and other regulatory proceedings. He also served as Bureau Chief for the Claims Bureau of New York's Attorney General's Office, where he supervised the preparation of all the Bureau's high exposure cases before they went to trial. Frank also handled over 50 trials as Assistant Attorney General in the Court of Claims involving wrongful death, highway design and maintenance, false arrest, assault, appropriations and property owner liability.
